FROM THE BRIDGE

Today on the Pacific Encounter, will spend the whole day making our way with a Northerly course. Be sure to keep an eye out for whales today! Minkie whales and Humpbacks are common in these areas around these months, they migrate to warmer waters for mating season. Keep looking to the horizon and you may be lucky to see one coming to the surface for some air and to play in the clear blue waters. We hope you have a whale of a time on board, and enjoy our seaday!
