HISTORY OF P&O CRUISES THE COMPANY THAT INVENTED CRUISING

Founded in 1837, the ships of P&O Cruises have been cruising the seas of the world for over 160 years. From those early days, P&O undertook voyages described as 'excursions,' the forerunners of today's cruising when passengers from England regularly travelled with the Royal Mails to ports on the Iberian Peninsula and the Mediterranean, returning home on other P&O mail voyages.

P&O's sister company, the Orient Line, first introduced regular cruising from the United Kingdom in the 1880s with the CHIMBORAZO and GARRONE to Baltic and Northern ports, while P&O's first dedicated cruise ship was the 1904 VECTIS of 5,500 tons, which carried 180 passengers. When P&O pioneered cruising from Australia in 1932, the new 23,000-ton mail steamer STRATHAIRD carried 1,100 passengers on the first cruise to Brisbane and Norfolk Island.

Today, P&O Cruises is Australia and New Zealand's leading cruise line, offering cruises to the South Pacific, Queensland and Asia from Sydney, Brisbane, Auckland and Singapore which appeal to couples, friends and families of all ages. The local fleet currently consists of the 47,000 ton PACIFIC SUN carrying 1,900 passengers, the 70,000 ton PACIFIC DAWN carrying 2,050 passengers as the most modern and largest cruise ship ever to be based in Australia. Pacific Dawn will introduce 'Your Choice Cruising' with more choice in cabins including balcony cabins, more choice in entertainment and more choice in dining with five different evening venues.

AS PART OF OUR ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY, THROWING GARBAGE OVERBOARD (INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO PLASTIC GLASSES, CANS AND CIGARETTE BUTTS) IS COMPLETELY FORBIDDEN AND AGAINST THE LAW. ANYONE BREACHING THIS INTERNATIONAL REGULATION COULD BE LIABLE TO FINES OR CRIMINAL PROSECUTION.

BAGGAGE:

To enable us to have a speedy disembarkation in Brisbane, we would request your help in placing the majority of your luggage outside your cabin between 5:00pm & 8:00pm on November 22, Saturday evening. This is necessary to avoid disturbing you during the early morning hours with luggage collection and to keep emergency exits and alleys clear in the case of an actual emergency. The remainder of your luggage should be placed outside your cabin at your convenience after dinner. Please carry all breakable and valuable items, including duty-free liquor, ashore yourself to ensure their safekeeping, as we cannot be responsible for the longshoremen's handling of them. In order to avoid the possibility of luggage being wrongly placed, please ensure your luggage is tagged with the correct luggage tags. Should you decide not to place your baggage outside your cabin door before retiring, you would then be responsible for carrying your own luggage ashore on the morning of disembarkation.

CASHING OUT:

If you have not taken advantage of our express check out system your shipboard account must be settled by 6:00am on the morning of disembarkation.

MEDICAL CENTER

THE MEDICAL CENTER IS OPEN
AT THE FOLLOWING TIMES:

10am to 12pm & 4:30pm to 6:30pm

Outside of clinic times the duty Nurse can be contacted in case of emergency by dialling 911.
