Airlie Beach is the hub of the Whitsunday region. Head to Cannonvale beach, a tranquil beachfront suburb to snap photos at a scenic vantage point. There's more amazing views over the tranquil Whitsunday waters at Shute Harbour Lookout. Disembark the coach in the centre of Airlie Beach and make your way to Airlie Beach markets or the beach front or lagoon to relax and cool off. Take the bus back to the wharf or alternatively enjoy additional free time in town and take either a shuttle bus or enjoy a short walk back to the pier later in the day. Special Notes: Please wear comfortable flat-soled shoes, clothing suited to the weather conditions, a hat and bring plenty of biodegradable sunscreen and bottled water. Guests who disembark the tour in Airlie Beach must make their way back to the pier of their own accord. Order of sights visited may vary and itinerary may be reversed. Not all coaches will have seat belts, however if they do guests are required by law to wear them.

EXHILARATING WHITEHAVEN EXPEDITION Tour Duration: Approximately 4.5 Hours

09:15 AM

Join your skipper and eco host on a semi-rigid inflatable boat. Zoom through tropical waters to Whitehaven Island, one of the largest of the 74 islands. Depending on the weather, your trip can range from exciting and fast to hair-raising! Whitehaven Beach is perfect for swimming. You can also join a guided walk to Hill Inlet lookout for picture-postcard views across to Pentecost Island. Return to Airlie Beach in the early afternoon. The island is totally uninhabited and offers a chance to get back to nature, but that also means there are no amenities or shops. Special Notes: Please wear comfortable flat-soled shoes, clothing suited to the weather conditions, a hat and jacket, and bring plenty of biodegradable sunscreen and bottled water. You should wear your swimsuit under your clothes and bring a towel. Please be aware that this tour is likely to be a bumpy action packed ride in certain weather conditions and therefore is not suitable for guests with some pre existing medical conditions such as hip, back, neck, heart injuries, breathing difficulty, pregnant women or mobility issues. Box jellyfish and stinger season generally starts with the onset of the wet across the top of northern Australia, usually between October and April. Guests must sign a waiver before participation.

LIST V

Tour Duration: Approximately 8 Hours Amile Board a premier day-cruise vessel to the Great Barrier Reef for an adventure-packed day at a reef pontoon to snorkel and explore. The underwater world is filled with vibrant fish, coral and a variety of marine life. There's a host of activities in store - swimming, snorkeling, a semi-submersible, an underwater viewing observatory, plus regular presentations by marine biologists. Transfer from the ship's anchor to the pontoon is approximately two hours each way. Depending on weather conditions, spend approx. 2.5 hours at the pontoon. Special Note: Guests wishing to snorkel must be fully able bodied with a medium level of fitness. Certain medical conditions including lung and heart conditions may prevent participation in snorkeling activities. Always snorkel with a buddy - never snorkel alone. Guests must be aware that they take this tour at their own risk. While safety is paramount and every precaution is taken, swimming snorkeling and scuba activities are taken at guests own risk. Tea and coffee is served on the catamaran. Additional beverages can be purchased at the bar onboard. Disposable waterproof cameras are available for purchase onboard your ship. The box jellyfish and stingers season generally starts with the onset of the wet across the top of northern Australia, usually around October and lasts until April. Stinger suits are included. The passage over open water is sometimes rough, so please take precautions if prone to seasickness. Every participant needs a ticket. Even though infants are free to participate they will need a complimentary ticket. Please visit the Carnival Adventures desk to obtain the complimentary infant ticket. Full buffet lunch included. All food allergies and preferences can be catered for if there is at least 24 hours' notice. Please advise your Shore Excursion desk of any allergies.
